To whom it may concern

Having worked as a marketing professional in Hong Kong and have decided to emigrate to Australia to live and work there.

After searching for a professional and reliable Australia registered immigration consulting firm, I finally decided to select and engage the professional services of John Hu of John Hu Migration Consulting (MARN 0746141) to process my Australia subclass 190 state nominated skilled visa.

John Hu and his team has guided me step by step in preparing all my information and supporting documents for my visa application, including my skills assessment, state nomination, Expression of Interest, visa application.

Finally, I got my permanent residence visa granted within 7 months!

I have no hesitation to recommend you to engage the professional immigration service of John Hu Migration for your immigration to Australia

Yours truly,

Ms. Mui
